

- 1 Search your mind and make a list of times in your personal and business life when you were not faithful to others outside of your family.

Once you have, how important is for others to see you as someone who is faithful?

- 2 As a member of the Cartel I was faithful to the cartel until death, but at the same time I was expected to have various mistresses. Can you see the hypocrisy? Can you identify times when you created a reason for being unfaithful in either your personal or business life?

- 3 What steps can you take to make being faithful a critical part of your personal and business life?

- 4 Write down the major components of what it takes to be faithful to yourself, your family and your business associates.

