

- 1 As you reflect upon your life story, and the story you would like your children to tell about you one day. Is being a person of integrity very important to you? If it is, write down why. If it is not, write down why you believe integrity is not critical to your success.

- 2 Make a list of the areas of your personal life, business life and family life that lack integrity. Put emphasis on which, if any, lack the most integrity.

- 3 Write down how lacking integrity has hampered or caused damage to your personal, business and family relationships.

- 4 Write down what steps you can take to correct what has hampered and/or caused damage in your personal, business and family life and begin to develop a life of integrity.
